2010 BCSA Membership Questionnaire

Which of the following best describes your primary sailing interest?

- Day Sailing (We all do some day sailing. Check this choice if this is your exclusive interest)
- Cruising (Generally, this means you like sailing to the lake's cruising destinations, perhaps for an overnight stay, and have an interest in cruising and seamanship skills.)
- Racing (You participate in BCSA's extensive racing program of quarterly series races and regattas)

Which educational opportunities interest you?

- One – to – One beginning and intermediate sailing for adults.
- Cruising, navigation, and seamanship skills.
- Introduction to sailboat racing.
- Junior (youth) sailing programs.
- Buying and selling sailboats.
- Sailboat management.
- 2009-2012 International Sailing Federation Racing Rules of Sailing

On which committees would you be willing to serve?

- Race,    Cruise,    Social,    Sailing Instruction

Examples of how to serve:

Race: assist on the committee boat by setting race courses and recording times.

Cruise: be the host boat at a destination location for an overnight or day sailing raft up.

Social: bring food to a function, clean up before or after a dinner, or host a social.

Sailing Instruction: mentor a beginning racer, lead a workshop
